

Boyce Funeral Home

There are “Many Things to Do” during one of the most difficult time of your life:

People to Notify:

- Doctor or coroner
- Funeral director
- Cemetery
- Relatives
- Clergy
- Friends
- Employer
- Organist and singer
- Pallbearers
- Insurance companies
- Unions and fraternal organizations
- Newspapers

In Addition To:

- Providing vital statistics about the deceased
- Preparing and signing necessary papers
- Providing addresses for all who must be notified
- Answering innumerable phone calls and letters
- Meeting with everyone about all details
- Greeting friends and relatives who call
- Providing lodging for out-of-town guests
- Cleaning and renovating home
- Planning funeral car list

Select:

- Burial or mausoleum space
- Casket
- Vault
- Clothing
- Blanket or robe
- Flowers
- Music
- Food
- Church
- Time for service
- Location for service
- Transportation
- Cards of thanks

And pay for some or all of the following:

- Doctor
- Nurse
- Hospital
- Medicine and drugs
- Funeral director
- Cemetery property
- Memorial service
- Florist
- Clergy
- Organist
- Clothing
- Transportation
- Telephone
- Food
- Memorials or monuments

Pre-Planning a funeral eliminates many of these tasks, costs and decisions.

To learn more about our services or to obtain information on pre-planning, please email us at info@boycefuneralhome.ca or call 613-623-2538.